Demise Removes Striking Figure From Politics

LONDON, July 3.—Joseph Chamberlain died here last night.

The death of Chamberlain, which removes one of the most striking figures of British politics in the past generation, came as a surprise, as the condition of his health was not publicly known to be any worse than at any time during the last two or three years.

Mrs. Chamberlain, who never left her husband's side since he was stricken with paralysis several years ago, and his son, Austen Chamberlain, were with Mr. Chamberlain when death occurred at 10.30 o'clock last night at his London residence. The event cast a gloom over the London season, which was at its height.

AT PARTY IN WHEEL CHAIR.

Chamberlain's last public appearance was at a garden party on the grounds of his Birmingham home, May 6 last, when with his wife and son he received several hundred constituents. Chamberlain was wheeled out on the lawn in a chair and appeared emaciated and feeble when he lifted his hat to friends and neighbors in acknowledgment of their salutes.

Tariff reforms, which, with imperialism, were the chief policies for which Joseph Chamberlain was spokesman when enforced retirement through paralysis occurred, have suffered an almost complete relapse, his son, Austen, being almost the only British statesman who advocates them on all occasions.

The cause of Chamberlain's death was announced as heart failure. Although he had been gradually sinking since Tuesday members of the family had preferred that his condition should not become public knowledge.

TARIFF REFORM PIONEER.

The Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain was the pioneer in Great Britain of tariff reform, and the great advocate of imperialism. For thirty-eight years, with a brief intermission, he represented Birmingham in Parliament. In 1906 his career of stormy activities was ended by a stroke of paralysis. The blow fell when he was in the midst of a strenuous campaign for the establishment of a protective tariff with preference for the British colonies and just after his constituents had elected him to the House of Commons.

Since that day the strong fighter has been an invalid, a pathetic-looking old man, who, although always with his loyal wife, daughter, of W. C. Endicott of Massachusetts, who was President Cleveland's secretary of war, beside him. His chief consolation was the growing political prominence of his son, Austen, who was President Cleveland's secretary of war, beside him. Savant Tries to Show He Has Criminals in Class

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, July 2.—Professor Carl Kelsey of the University of Pennsylvania told his summer session class yesterday that there are a number of criminals running around loose who should long ago have been in jail. The remark was made when a woman student asked him if he believed criminal tendencies hereditary.

"Is there anyone present who is not a criminal?" he demanded. "If so, let him raise his hand."

After waiting for a show of hands and finding none, Professor Kelsey continued: "The criminal who has been in jail two terms or so is doubly unfortunate. We err when we judge a criminal by the number of times he has been locked up. There are people who should have had five or ten terms and have never been in the inside of a prison."

Folsom Cake Walk Prize Will Be Piece de Resistance of Celebration.

"Make us a cake as a prize for our international cake walk," wrote a Folsom prisoner to Manager Victor Reiter of the Hotel Oakland.

A cake walk without a cake. Never! Not even in Folsom, said the hotel officials, and the pastrycook received an order for a huge angel cake, which was dispatched to Folsom this morning and will form the piece de resistance at the prison carnival, which the anonymous writer assures Manager Reiter will be the biggest and only thing of its kind ever staged in any prison in America.

Following is the letter containing the unique request. Mr. Victor Reiter, Manager of the Hotel Oakland, Oakland, Cal.—Dear Sir: Probably never before in the history of your entire hotel experience have you ever received a letter from a man in the state's prison asking you for anything unless possibly it was from someone who wanted your assistance to get out. The writer of this letter does not want to get out, or at least until after the Fourth of July, as the biggest and only thing of its kind ever staged in any prison in America is going to be put on in the shape of a carnival and circus barbeque. We have everything to make the day a success, from the elephant down to the pink lemonade, excepting one thing, and that is a suitable prize for one of Captain Eberle of the armored cruiser Washington, at Cape Haytien, Haiti, reported that a small rebel band attacked a fort near Cape Haytien Tuesday night, but after firing a few scattering shots, retreated.

Is Strange Slumber Due to Brain Benumbed by Memories?

Lying in a comatose state, barely a shade off sleep, able to open his eyes, but showing absolutely no consciousness, J. H. McDonald, a street car conductor, who dropped asleep on his car early this morning, is lying at the Emergency hospital, one of the most baffling mysteries the physicians of Oakland have ever encountered.

Appearing normal physically, save for the deep sleep which has overpowered him, the youth is lying in bed, sometimes moving slightly, often opening his eyes to look at his mother, who is in constant attendance at his bedside, but not able to realize his surroundings, or even to speak.

Years ago, as a child, he fell and

No Attempt at Robbery; Police Are Baffled by Case

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Mystery surrounds a strange and vicious attack made upon Miss Leona Lee, 19-year-old seminary graduate, which occurred shortly after midnight as she was returning to the home of C. J. Colley, an architect, with offices in the Pacific building, at 3166 Washington street, where she resides.

"I was frightened," she said today, "and fearful to look around. The steps quickened their pace and I heard them immediately behind me. Then I started to turn about and was struck on the side of the head. It was a man who struck me, as I saw him when I fell. Then I remembered nothing until Patrolman Mahn came and revived me."

LIES HELPLESS.

After the assault Miss Lee lay on the street where she was struck down for more than half an hour, before she was discovered by Mahn. According to the report of the officer, no attempt had been made to drag the girl away from CATASTROPHES ANEW. Barely had the child recovered from this accident, after lying unconscious for days, when he saw his father stabbed, frightfully mangled and almost killed by Jake Oppenheimer, "the human tiger," who paid the penalty for his misdeeds on the scaffold last year.

The sinister memory and the shock of the tragedy when the convict attacked the man before the child's eyes, according to the youth's father, cast a damper over his spirits. Two years ago, when an attack of appendicitis came, the youth again lost consciousness for a few hours, and in his comatose sleep dreamed again of the Oppenheimer affair.

Three days ago he complained of his eyes and interviewed Dr. Hayward G. Thomas, who declared that a peculiar nervous defect had been found in the optic nerves and recommended an operation.

FALLS IN OPEN AIR. This morning, while riding on the last car returning to the Elmhurst car barns, McDonald suddenly fell into his deep sleep. Jack Caffon, the motorman, attempting to rouse him and finding the attempt unavailing, notified the police and accompanied him to the hospital, where Dr. E. E. Dowdle, Dr. H. B. Bell and Steward Jack Enlay made strenuous attempts to rouse him. McDonald slept heavily despite all treatment, breathing stentoriously and seemingly impervious to pain, sensation and oblivious to sound.

"Frankly," declared Dr. Bell, "I cannot tell what it is. It is the most (Continued on Page 3, Col. 5)

WRONG MAN ACCUSED IN COURT?

Did "Black Hand" Ring Place Blame Upon James Bua?

Attorney for Defendant Tells Judge Mistake Has Been Made

Is James Bua, arrested as a writer of "black hand" letters, and now awaiting trial in the Superior Court, the wrong man, and an innocent man taken into custody through the machinations of a "black hand" ring?

This is the puzzle confronting the court officials, following evidences unearthed tending to suggest such a ring, and following the announcement this morning made by George Ingraham, the defendant's attorney, that Bua, in his belief, not only did not write the letters, but knows nothing of the matter, his very ignorance making his case more difficult to fight. Ingraham declares that he has always believed Bua innocent, and while he can offer no light on the supposed "ring," he never has faltered in his faith in the defendant.

James Bua, accused of attempting by threatening letters to extort money from James Arena and Charles Rubino, and held for the Superior Court for trial, came before Judge Stanley A. Smith this morning in an argument for the reduction of his bail from $5000 to $2500. Pending conferences between the police, district attorney and the attorney for the defendant, George Ingraham, the matter was put over.

Bua's case is puzzling. While the police have a strong suspicion that the "black hand" letters, and now awaiting trial in the Superior Court, the wrong man, and an innocent man taken into custody through the machinations of a "black hand" ring.

BELIEVE HE'S WRONG MAN.

"Personally, I have come to the conclusion," declares Ingraham, "that the police arrested the wrong man. Bua declares that he knows nothing whatever about the case, and from long acquaintance with him I believe him to be telling the truth. I was quoted as declaring him a possible tool, but I did not mean by that that he was in any way connected with the case. I meant that he was a victim—a man arrested for a crime committed by some one else."

"I have questioned him, and absolutely believe that he knows nothing of the real writers of those blackhand letters. I would not talk to the court as I have if I were not absolutely confident of that fact."

Inspector Kyle of the Oakland police department, after a close investigation, offered an opinion that the letters Bua is alleged to have written were the products of a ring, and intimates that he has clues that may clear the situation. Bua, however, was not recommended for a reduction of bail, and the case has been laid over until Kyle consults with the court officers in the matter.

HAS KNOWN DEFENDANT.

According to Ingraham, who has known the man for years, there is no evidence that the defendant ever associated with blackmailers, and from personal knowledge of the man's antecedents, he declares, he is positive that this is not possible.

"I am therefore doing what I am doing in a firm conviction that Bua has been wronged," declares Ingraham. "I believe that he is not the man the police want, and expect to show this."

This morning, in court, Ingraham attacked the evidence against Bua as not sufficient for a trial.

"I cannot say that the evidence would be sufficient for a jury to convict on," said Judge Smith, "but I feel that it is reasonable to call a trial on it, according to law."

Woman Threatens Fire, Demands $500; She Blames Satan

LOS ANGELES, July 3.—Declaring that Satan had tempted her, Miss Nancy H. Shuff, 65 years old, told officers today that she had attempted to extort money from M. M. Meyers, a neighbor. The elderly woman was arrested late last night after the police had laid traps for her. Miss Shuff attempted to obtain $500 from Meyers by threatening to burn his home and demanded that the money be placed in a box near a fence between their homes.

Several days ago, with police officers watching, Meyers dropped a number of iron washers into the box. Miss Shuff walked by the box, but was not arrested by the detectives.

A second and more successful trap was laid last night. The elderly prisoner promptly admitted her guilt when questioned. Miss Shuff said she had been swindled out of $10,000 during the last few years, and this fact, coupled with the tempting of Satan, caused her to try to retaliate against society by attempting to obtain money from her neighbors.

OAKLAND MAN SLAIN

Wharton's Body Brought Home for Funeral While Mystery Is Investigated.

While the detective forces of the south are working on one of the most peculiar murder mysteries in the history of the state, the body of Richard B. Wharton, an Oakland chauffeur who met his death this week near Ventura, was brought home today to this city, where his mother and sisters live.

The case is one of the most baffling that the southern authorities have coped with. It is believed that Wharton was killed to hide some plot in which he was made an unwitting tool. It is known that he was engaged to drive two men from Los Angeles to Lankershim. They started and no more was heard of Wharton until his body was found on the Los Anclon road, near Ventura, hidden behind a clump of willows. His skull was fractured.

The automobile, it is declared, was driven by four men to the western city limits of Ventura and abandoned.

Campers found the body on Wednesday in the willows and notified the Ventura authorities. At the time a search for the missing man had already been started. Sheriff McMartin of Ventura county, who is investigating, is making a close examination into the man's affairs and the Los Angeles end of the supposed murder.

The funeral will be held in this city. An inquest will be held in Ventura.

Belmont Home Scene Of Suffrage Meeting

NEWPORT, R. I., July 3.—Suffragists today invaded the heretofore inviolable ramparts of Newport, the summer play place of America's multi and mere millionaires. At the invitation of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, woman suffrage leaders from every state in the Union gathered today at Marble House, the palace home of the New York traction magnate's wife, to discuss battle plans for concentrating all their efforts in supporting a suffrage measure in Congress.

Suffrage leaders have been widely divided over the respective merits of the Senator Shaffroth and Senator Brewster measures now before Congress. It was to affect a compromise on these two measures that the meeting was called today.

Lowlands of South the Scene of Growsome Tragedy

ATLANTA, Ga., July 3.—The bodies of S. F. Bennett, his 17-year-old wife, Mrs. Flossie Bennett, and her mother, Mrs. Mattie Talbert, were found in a swamp at East Point, a suburb of Atlanta, early today. Wounds indicated that all three had been shot. The bodies of the women were covered with brush, while that of Bennett lay in the open a few yards away.

The police believe Bennett killed his wife by strangling her two days ago, that he lurched her mother to the scene and shot her yesterday, afterwards firing a charge into the body of Mrs. Bennett, and after covering their bodies with brush, fastened the gun to a stump, stood before it and discharged it with a twig. The charge tore a great hole in his chest.

Bennett was last seen on Thursday. He formerly resided at Logansville, Georgia, and was a brother of N. O. Bennett, member of the Georgia Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 3.—Judge A. B. Anderson of the United States district court, who was held the trial of the dynamite conspiracy cases in 1912, today disposed of the remaining cases. On motion of Frank O. Deller, United States district attorney, the charge against Olaf A. Twittem, William J. McCall, James E. Ray, Richard H. Houlahan, Frederick Sherman and Harry S. Jones, were dismissed.

George A. Davis, who has been held a prisoner in the federal building since last October, when he was arrested in New York, after confessing to being a "second Orlie McManis," was taken before Judge Anderson and sentence was suspended on his plea of guilty, which he entered after being indicted by the grand jury last November. He was released immediately.

Body of Young Man Found in Estuary

ALAMEDA, July 3.—The body of an unidentified man was found this morning by William L. Lerman, floating in the Oakland estuary near the Webster street bridge. The body is that of a young man, about 30 years of age. He was 5 feet 6 inches in height, weighed about 150 pounds, had black hair, blue eyes and a straight nose. The man wore a dark suit, a white shirt and a black tie. He was held up by a belt, brown socks and black lace shoes. One hand was bandaged.

On the body was found a silver watch and a purse containing $1.39. The remains had apparently been in the water about a week and there are no marks of violence.

TELLS ADVENTURIST
STRIDES IN BURMAMissionary Gives Interesting
Data Regarding Bubonic
Plague and Natives.

Where jungle grass hides the cobra and wild tigers, where wild elephants have their home, where for five months the rainfall is so heavy that green mould forms on shoes in two days, and clothing must be kept in the house or trunk—this is Burma, to which Mrs. Ollie Oberholzer Tornblad, M. D., Seventh Day Adventist missionary, sailed at noon today on the steamer China from San Francisco. She has been in the United States on furlough for a year, and will be located at Moulmein, where Adoniram Judson opened missionary work in 1827. Before her departure Dr. Tornblad spoke in the large pavilion at the Seventh Day Adventist campground, Thirty-seventh avenue and Foothill boulevard, telling of the tremendous strides made here. More than 100 natives are attending the boys' school at Moulmein, Burma, where the youth are taught carpentry and cane chair making, in addition to the grade work. One of the largest furniture firms of Rangoon is purchasing their product.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR CATS.
The English Government is endeavoring to stamp out the bubonic plague in Burma by offering prizes to the natives who raise the best and most cats, said Dr. Tornblad. Prizes were offered at first for dead rats in an effort to exterminate these disease carriers, but it was found that some of the natives were raising rats to get the money, so this was discontinued.

"I have bared for many cases of bubonic plague," continued Dr. Tornblad, "but was never fearful of contracting the disease. Once, when rats were found in the house, I moved, and, of course, took orders to be sent to the hospital. Sometimes the plague comes in an epidemic, which sweeps everything before it. At other times there are only a few cases. It is almost impossible to quarantine the natives, when one in a family dies, they will bury the body and go to the homes of friends. Attempts at quarantine on the part of the government are resisted. Although the government has established hospitals, many natives refuse to accept the treatment. Rangoon has one of the best equipped hospitals in the world."

PURE DEVIL WORSHIP.
"The Burmese are the purest Buddhists in the world, although their religion is permeated with devil worship. They believe in persons who are possessed of the devil, and if they are sick a cure will be brought by driving the devil out. Charming and fat fees of the native doctors are the means. Often the patient in a feverish state must be fed, according to these doctors, and the result is that the sick person is starved to death."

"Tigers? Yes, we have them, but they will not ordinarily attack a man in daylight. A female charged my husband near Moulmein one day as he was traveling with two natives along the road between 11 and 12 o'clock in the morning. He had only a bird shot in his gun, and the natives climbed trees to look him, but when the tiger came close enough, but when she was 20 feet away, she yelped and she slunk away with a growl."

MAN-EATING TIGERS.
"The man-eating tigers are the ones whose teeth are used after they have once tasted human flesh they refuse anything else."

"Elephants work in the lumber yards piling the teak lumber, for which Burma is noted. These animals are very careful not to come in contact with the saws, and always it is time to quit when the whistle blows."

"The Burmese are an open-hearted frank people. There is no caste, as in India, and they have no women in purdah. They wear saris, like the Indians and Europeans to their homes. But they are proud and egotistical, and have remarked of America, 'It must be nearly as good as Burma.'"

"We have 250 inches of rainfall a year. I have known it to rain two weeks steady, and 25 inches in 24 hours by constant rain."

"The Adventists opened treatment rooms in Rangoon recently, these being in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. McCormick of Portland, Ore. The Sabbath schoolwork is receiving consideration at the camp ground this morning, the speakers being Elders V. J. Farnsworth, Sabbath school secretary for the California Conference. Elder sacrifices made in establishing the first Adventist printing press, narrated by Elder J. N. Southborough this morning."

HAIRPINS FLY DURING
FISTIC COURT SQUABBLE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Hairpins flew and feathers hats were knocked to marble flooring in the hall of justice outside Police Judge Sullivan's court room, this morning when Kate Colago entered into a fist fight with Theresa Albert, whom she had brought along as her interpreter for charges of battery preferred by Maria Delva. Yesterday Mrs. Colago, who lives at 110 Sutter street, was arrested by Officers Coffin and Floyd on a charge of battery for striking Mrs. Delva. The case came up for hearing this morning. After the hearing in which Judge Sullivan dismissed the case with a warning, Mrs. Colago made accusations against Mrs. Albert. Mrs. Albert immediately resented it with her fists and a handkerchief. Policemen in the corridor interfered. There were no arrests.

WOMAN FOOLS ROBBER.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Answering a ring at her doorbell last night, Mrs. H. A. Wilton, 224 Colton street, was confronted by a man who said he had a telegram for her. Suddenly he thrust a revolver in her face. Mrs. Wilton slammed the door and the man ran. The police could not find him.

POLICE MAKE ARRESTS.
John Hogan was arrested today on a petty larceny charge preferred by A. Risig, for the alleged theft of blankets. Roy Tobin was arrested on a petty larceny charge for the alleged theft of a scarf from Mrs. J. F. Keffer of Thirty-eighth avenue. Dan Kuyshich was arrested for selling a cement workers' outfit which he is alleged to have obtained on credit.

In Parliament, and I feel that our city and the constituency need the services of a younger man."

While his greatest claim to fame was his determined and brilliant advocacy for years of a protective policy for Great Britain, the citadel of free trade, he will also be remembered as the bitter and most forceful opponent of Gladstone in that statesman's efforts for home rule for Ireland, as one of the founders of the Liberal-Unionist party, and as the minister whose policy in South Africa involved his country in the greatest war it has ever known.

He was born in London, just 32 years after his birth in London, that he received his baptism of public life as town councillor of Birmingham, later, serving as mayor for successive terms.

From the day he left University College, London, to enter his father's screw factory at Birmingham, Joseph Chamberlain devoted his best energies to "the principle of constructive reform." It was in 1868, just 32 years after his birth in London, that he received his baptism of public life as town councillor of Birmingham, later, serving as mayor for successive terms.

In 1876 he entered Parliament, being elected without opposition as a member of the House of Commons. In his early years in the Commons he sat among the Home Rule Liberals, with whose aspirations he was supposed to sympathize, but a few years later he emphatically disavowed his associates in the House of Commons. He had had of his belief in separate government for Ireland.

In less than four years he was a cabinet minister, entering Gladstone's government in 1880 as president of the Board of Trade, and in less than a decade his hold on popular opinion was almost as great as Gladstone's. After the general election of 1885 he became president of the Board of Trade, but by the spring of 1888 his relations with the latter's Irish policy had become so strained that he broke with the great premier, resigned his place in the cabinet and left the Liberal party never to return to it.

FORM NEW PARTY.
He, Lord Hartington (afterward the Duke of Devonshire), G. J. Goschen and others high in the Liberal party who saw in their former leader's home rule proposals and propaganda a menace to the integrity of the empire, formed a new party to resist them. They called themselves Liberal Unionists and anti-home rule was, in the beginning, their main tenet. Lord Hartington was the first leader, but when he was elevated to the peerage Chamberlain was chosen the party's chief.

Meanwhile Mr. Chamberlain had visited the United States, November, 1887, to February, 1888, as the head of the British representative mission to the American-British joint high commission which was to negotiate a treaty for the settlement of the long standing fisheries dispute. A treaty was signed but the United States Senate refused to ratify it. Late in 1888 Mr. Chamberlain returned to the United States, this time to be married. Having been twice a widower he took as his third wife Miss Mary Endicott, daughter of William C. Endicott, President Cleveland's secretary of war.

During the campaign of 1892 Mr. Chamberlain worked with great effect and subsequently in the Commons he was to the forefront in all the assaults on the Irish government bill and clashed frequently with Mr. Gladstone. The home rule crisis was aggravated by his rasping tactics. During debate on the bill, one night in July, 1893, Mr. Gladstone tartly compared him with "the devil's advocate." The next night in debate Mr. Chamberlain retorted so caustically that T. P. O'Connor yelled at him "Judas! Judas!" followed presently by a free fight on the floor between several members—a rare outbreak in previous years.

Keen head; forceful tongue. The Birmingham man with the monocle and long aquiline nose (both the delight of the English caricaturists); the keen head and the forceful tongue; the faultlessly fashionable attire (topped off invariably with a white orchid in the coat lapel) was now a commanding figure at Westminster. On the formation of the coalition (Conservative and Unionist) ministry Salisbury as colonial secretary. In this position his remarkable powers were severely tested by South Africa—the chain of strenuous events beginning with Jameson's hare-brained raid ending when Lord Kitchener had worn down the stubborn Boer resistance with the treaty of Vereeniging—but he stood the test. His eneemies, too, savagely assailed him as being the adroit tool of the Rand gold mine owners and his course toward the Afrikaners was a leading issue in the campaign of 1900 and during 1901. But he was the object of great popular demonstrations before his visit to South Africa late in 1902 on a mission of conciliation and observation and also on his return early in 1903.

The war and the elections over he set himself the task of fostering the relations between the mother country and the colonies. The constitution for the Australian commonwealth was one of his productions.

Just before his 67th birthday Chamberlain launched his scheme of fiscal reform, which partly succeeded in splitting the Unionist party. It was in May and at Birmingham that he announced his new policy, and finding in September that his party was not ready for so radical a change he resigned to devote himself to popularizing his doctrines. He fought the cause with a genius, eloquence, energy and organization never equaled in any previous moment in his career, but his party wavered and went down to defeat in the election of 1906. The one bright spot for the Unionist party during those dark days was Birmingham and vicinity, where Chamberlain carried his candidates to victory.

THOUSANDS VIEW
ARCHDUKE ALBERT

Bodies of Assassinated Royalty Lie in Silver Coffins, Ornamented With Gold.

VIENNA, July 3.—Crowds of mourners visited today the chapel of the Hofburg where the coffins containing the bodies of the Archduke Francis Ferdinand and the Duchess of Hohenberg lay in state. A continuous procession marched past the catafalques.

Emperor Francis Joseph left the suburban palace at Schenbrunn early today for the Hofburg. As he passed through the streets thousands of people cheered him. Although the court chapel was not opened until 8 o'clock, the crowds began to assemble outside before dawn. The bodies lay in silver coffins, ornamented with gold. That of the archduke was decorated with gold bands and oak leaves, while that of the duchess was covered with lilies. Life guards formed a guard of honor. In front of the coffins reposed two wreaths bearing the simple inscription: "Sofie, Max, Ernst." They were from the archduke's children. Other floral offerings numbering several hundred were placed in apartments adjoining the chapel.

Masses were said at all the altars of the chapel from 5 o'clock in the morning until noon. At 1 o'clock the court chapel entered and sang the "Miserere," and from noon until 1 o'clock the bells of city churches tolled.

TRAFFIC ON GREAT LAKES DECREASES

Freight Movement for June Shows Loss Over Same Month in 1913.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., July 3.—Another heavy decrease in Great Lakes traffic is shown by the statistical report of commerce through the American and Canadian canals at this point for the month of June.

The total freight movement of 8,588,081 tons is 3,535,332 tons below the total for June, 1913. In practically every article of freight, except flour, eastbound, and hard coal, westbound, there is a sharp short of the totals for June of last year.

Vessel passages for the month were 2805, with a registered net tonnage of 6,665,134, as compared with 3413 vessels with 8,540,442 tonnage last year. During the month nearly twice as many American locks were sent through the Canadian canal, but the volume of freight handled through the Canadian waterway was 720,029 tons greater than by the American route.

WELL KNOWN DOCTOR
FOUND DEAD IN HOTEL

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Dr. George A. Siefert, one of the wealthy men of San Jose, was found dead in bed yesterday afternoon at the Palace Hotel. The discovery was made by one of the valets of the hotel who entered Dr. Siefert's room at 5 o'clock by a previous appointment. Dr. Siefert was apparently asleep, but looked so peculiar that the valet called another. The body was taken to the morgue where it was ascertained that death was caused by an organic disease of the heart.

Dr. Siefert was 58 years of age. He was born and reared in Santa Clara county, was educated at Santa Clara University and afterward at Eastern medical colleges. He retired from his profession several years ago, but at one time was a leading practitioner at San Jose. He never married and for many years lived at the Sainte Claire Club, the bachelors' organization of San Jose. He was an Elk, but belonged to no other order. He leaves a fortune estimated at about $500,000.

CHIPMUNK TRAPPED IN FINANCE DISTRICT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Far from the wilds of Alaska, where the founders of its fortunes were formed, the home office of the Alaska Commercial Company has engaged in trapping on its own account.

The only reward of its efforts so far is a rather small creature, but pretty. It is something to catch any kind of a fur animal in the heart of San Francisco's financial district.

The capture was effected early yesterday morning in the basement of the Alaska Commercial building, at California and Sansome streets. The quarry is a little striped chipmunk with bright black eyes and an inquisitive disposition. It has sharp teeth, too, as Tom J. Thomas, the assistant engineer of the building, can testify.

puzzling case I ever have observed. The man seems normal and yet is not, and it does not appear to be an ordinary case of aphasia or catalepsy."

The man shows no symptoms of drugs, no trace of liquor. Dr. Dowdle is also puzzled. He declares that such cases have resulted from shock or a succession of shocks, such as the sight of the Oppenheimer attack, the psychological influences of memory and the knowledge of Oppenheimer's hanging reacting upon a weakened brain cell condition due to the fall in early youth.

LIKE FANTASY OF FICTION.
"It is hard to hazard guesses, however," declared Dr. Dowdle. "Could the man be an incarnation of the queer character in H. G. Wells' book sible that he will sleep on and on, or will he find a brain adhesion somewhere to account for the trouble? Is it psychological or physiological? Frankly we cannot say at this time." McDonald, who is 22 years of age, has been in the employ of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railroad since he was 21 years of age, and has lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. McDonald, at 1724 Nineteenth avenue, for some time.

His latest seizure from the Oppenheimer assault, which occurred during one of the attempted prison breaks of the "human tiger," who stabbed the foreman in his dash for freedom. The son, at the time, was a mere stripling.

MOTHER BESIDE HIM.
The man's mother was in constant attendance at his bedside today. She declares that memory of the horror at the prison has something to do with the queer case.

"He can remember the attack and also the sight of his father in bed in the hospital afterward," she declared. "He was excited when the news of Oppenheimer's hanging came. These things—the injury in his boyhood and the subsequent appendicitis attack—may have been the cause of his trouble. I am afraid my son will never wake again."

Dr. Dowdle declares that as yet it is impossible to predict whether or not the man will live or die.

MUSICIANS' UNION IN DIFFERENCES WITH N. S.

SAN JOSE, July 3.—At the request of the Musicians' Union of San Francisco, the San Jose Labor Union declared some of the Golden West to be held in the Garden City July 3-5.

This action was taken because of the alleged violation on the part of the N. S. G. W. bands of Alameda county of the agreement not to discriminate against the full capacity of the members of the Musicians' Union.

President Matthews and other representatives of the union are in San Jose preparing to wage an active boycott against the celebration.

To this the N. S. G. W. replied: "A boycott against the Native Sons' Fourth of July celebration at San Jose, having been issued by the Musicians' Union, the San Francisco committee in charge of the excursion from this city believes it but fair to state that the action seems most unwarranted in view of the fact that neither the officers of the committee nor the grand officers of the union have any controversy with the musicians or other unions."

He earnestly hope that all Native Sons and their friends will not permit this attempted boycott to disfigure them from attending this patriotic celebration parade will take place this evening as scheduled, leaving Native Sons' hall at 8 o'clock.

PIONEER WOMAN PASSES
PEACEFULLY FROM LIFE

Mrs. Lucy A. Crawford, a pioneer of California, passed peacefully away yesterday morning, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Crafts, 1905 Chestnut street, this city, after a long period of illness.

Mrs. Crawford came to this state in 1852 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Echols. Marrying James Crawford, at Auburn, she was a resident of Placer county for many years, later of Sacramento city. For the past twenty years she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Crafts, in this city. She was also the mother of the late Mrs. Reed Raymond, wife of the late general collector of the Southern Pacific company.

A son, Mr. A. T. Echols, living at Afton, Montana, survives her.

Services will be held at the Albert Brown Undertaking parlors next Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial will be held at the Creed Raymond vault at Sacramento.

MARTINEZ, July 3.—Sheriff R. R. Veale of Contra Costa county has received word from Congressman C. F. Curry at Washington to the effect that the Congressional Rivers and Harbor Commission will visit the coast during the early part of August, to take up the study of local conditions pursuant to appropriations for work along the Contra Costa water front and in adjacent channels.

Curry said that the business of the committee was being rushed at the capital to allow sufficient time for the trip, and every effort is being made to finish matters now before it for consideration to permit a thorough investigation of California needs.

FACTORY OF NATIONAL ICE CREAM COMPANY AT THIRD AND CYPRESS STREETS, OAKLAND.

The National Ice Cream Company

is the largest institution of this kind on the Pacific coast, and is the only manufacturer of ice cream doing a wholesale business in a modern plant, operated along hygienic lines for producing the highest quality of ice cream. One of the most important factors is having sweet cream of purity and the best quality. This can only be obtained where the manufacturer owns his creameries and controls the output of the dairies. This enables the manufacturer to procure a cream that is always fresh, pure, clean, sterile and which has a good taste and flavor. The manufacturer not having these facilities must use commercial sweet cream, which does not possess these important qualities. The average ice cream manufacturer uses commercial sweet cream to make ice cream.

The National Ice Cream Company produces a special cream for making ice cream and the cost of its production is in excess of the market price of the cream.

In the western foothills of the San Joaquin meadows, where the cream is produced by healthy cows that are fed and kept under perfect sanitary surroundings. Twice a day, mornings and evenings, this cream is taken to the company's centrally located creamery, where the cream is strained, clarified and pasteurized, and is kept at a temperature of 145 degrees for thirty minutes to kill the germs and bacteria. After this process the cream is cooled instantly to a temperature of 32 degrees, then drawn off in ten-gallon hermetically sealed cans and shipped to our plant. This insures not only the highest quality of sweet cream for flavor and odor, but produces an absolutely safe, clean and sterile sweet ice cream that is healthful and good.

We use the best quality fruits and flavors and cream. For example, we purchase strawberries and raspberries in season, sugar them properly, carry them in cold storage, and thus have a fresh supply of fruit and sugar.

We are just completing the installation of our new machinery at our factory at Third and Cypress streets, where we will manufacture the highest standard cream that can be produced, according to the present advanced standards.

News from NATION'S CAPITAL

MIGHT IMPROVE
FOREIGN TRADEUnited States' Interchange
Among Nations Not Up to Possibilities.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Although a world leader in the interchange of products among its own people, the United States' foreign trade is far short of its immediate possibilities.

Such is the conclusion of officials of the department of commerce after a study of the statistical abstract of the United States for 1913 made public today. American home trade at present is estimated at about $40,000,000,000, which is equal to the exchanges of the world and approximately ten times the value of its own foreign trade, now valued at $4,000,000,000.

The abstract shows that the present American export trade of $2,500,000,000 represents about $25 per capita. A per capita basis equal to that of Argentina, it says, would raise American export power to $5,000,000,000 and one equal to that of Belgium would bring its exports to $10,000,000,000 a year while its aggregate foreign trade, when upon a per capita basis as large as Canada's would be considerably over $15,000,000,000.

The United States commercial power and its strong international power is further emphasized in the abstract. It shows that the United States with 90,000 miles of railway possesses one-third of the world's total. It leads in the mileage of its telegraph lines, performs more than one-third of the world's mail service on its own routes, while its public debt of $1,000,000,000 is less than that of Italy, Austria-Hungary, Spain, Germany, Australia, Japan, Great Britain and less than one-sixth that of France and one-fourth that of Russia.

While there have been frequent temporary recessions in the course of American commerce, yet the tendency as ever has been upward. From 1890 to 1901 American foreign trade grew from $1,500,000,000 to $2,500,000,000, an increase of 50 per cent, while from 1902 to 1913, it increased from $2,500,000,000 to $4,250,000,000, a gain of 90 per cent.

In the period since 1870 farm products rose in value from $2,000,000,000 to $15,000,000,000 a year, the coal output from less than thirty million to five hundred million long tons; copper from twelve and a half thousand to over one-half million tons; pig iron from 2,000,000 to 21,000,000 tons; petroleum from 25,000,000 to 925,000,000 gallons and manufactures from $4,000,000,000 to over $20,000,000,000.

PRICES PAID PRODUCERS FOR MEAT DECREASE

WASHINGTON, July 3.—There was a decrease of 1.0 per cent in the level of prices paid to American producers for meat animals during the month from May 15 to June 15, last, the department of agriculture announced today. For the same period last year the price level showed an increase of 1.6 per cent.

During the six months from December 15 to June 15, the level of prices for meat animals increased 5.1 per cent as against 12.0 per cent during the same period a year ago.

On June 15 last, the average (weighted) price of meat animals hogs, cattle, sheep and chickens was $7.22 per 100 pounds, three cents more than it was on June 15, 1913.

WILL ISSUE NEW
BANK NOTES SOONAll Federal Reserve Currency
Will Be of One
Design.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Plans for the issuance of the new federal reserve bank notes to the twelve reserve banks after their establishment will be completed within 36 days. This was announced today by John Shelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, following several conferences he has had with Secretary McAdoo and Director Ralph of the bureau of printing and engraving concerning the new notes.

It has been practically decided that notes of all denominations will have a greenback of the same design. This would make it necessary for notes to be stacked right side up before they can be counted and would simplify the work of tellers. The notes will be in denominations of five, ten, twenty, fifty and one hundred dollars. Portraits of Lincoln, Cleveland, Jackson, Grant and Franklin have been considered for use on the various notes, but a definite decision has not yet been reached.

Lists of nominees for directorships in the new federal reserve banks were mailed to directors of the various banks today. The organization committee has had a number of meetings since then to avoid errors. Men with similar names have been nominated in several districts and frequently the same men have been named for a director in two classes.

The A and B classes of directors are such that many men would be eligible to election in each class and frequently men have been named in both classes. Should he be elected in both classes and be eligible in either, he will be regarded as elected in the class where his vote is heavier. After the electors of the various banks receive the lists of nominees they may wait fifteen days before casting their ballots.

Let Us Boost Poppy League.

Tomorrow the San Jose Chamber of Commerce will organize the California State Poppy League for the perpetuation, preservation and appreciation of the flower that California has made famous, or that has made California famous, whichever is right. In its invitation to other cities to join in a movement to make "Poppy Day" an annual event the Chamber of Commerce of the Garden City offers the following suggestions:

We can make March 30 a day memorable to California by exhibiting the State flower from all counties on the day and create a wonderful enthusiasm.

We suggest that as many counties or districts as will, celebrate locally a Poppy Festival. Santa Clara county will have its Poppy Carnival April 1, 2 and 3, closely following Poppy Day at the exposition.

Alluding to the State Exposition it is noted that reservations have been granted by the Panama-Pacific and the Panama-California at San Diego for March 30, the management of both will be a feature. In addition to this, Colonel John S. McGroarty, who has charge of the Mission Play at San Gabriel, has offered to reserve one day for the same purpose.

All of which is gratifying. For the Copa de Oro of Father Serra deserves all the honors that can be bestowed. It is distinctive in its beauty and indigenous. It represents the Golden State as no other blossom. It covers its hills with a glory of aureolin and makes pleasant many spots that would otherwise be lacking. It finds a resting place on the high hills and on the sand dunes; it nestles among the crags of the mountains and dots the green meadows as do stars the sky. It is a child of the sunshine and the unlimited gold of earth and as Ina Coolbirth has aptly said of it:

"Thy satin vesture richer is than looms
Of Orient weave for raiment for her king;
Not dyes of olden Tyre, not precious things
Regathered from the long-forgotten tombs
Of buried empires, not the iris plumes
That wave upon the tropic's myriad wings,
Not all proud Sheba's queenly offerings,
Could match the golden marvel of thy blooms."

San Jose is to be congratulated on initiating the movement and may it be a great success.

Killed by Carelessness.

The recent death of A. A. Moore Jr. and of Mr. Schemmel, caused by inexcusable carelessness of public officers, make a grievance that calls for comment. In each case a bridge on a public road had been destroyed, leaving a death trap against which a feeble banner had been placed immediately upon the banks of the stream. One victim was going in his automobile, after dark, to a pleasant family meeting on his father's ranch. His machine ran into the unguarded gorge and he was instantly killed. The other was on his way, after dark, in his machine, to the deathbed of his brother. He also died in the unguarded gorge, left by the destruction of a bridge on a public highway.

It is difficult to speak in calm rebuke of those officials who are responsible for those deaths. One would suppose that ordinary common sense would have moved the responsible officials, who knew the bridges were gone, to place at least half a mile away from the danger an efficient banner, to be seen by day and guarded by a red light at night. This obvious precaution was not taken, and two good men are dead in consequence, and two families are in sorrow.

No law can restore the dead nor beguile the sorrow of the bereaved. But if it be possible the delinquent officials and the counties they misrepresent should be made to smart in high damages for carelessness that amounts to a crime. This should be done to save other lives by warning officials in charge of public highways that they have no immunity from punishment when they kill people by neglect of their duty.

If those two citizens had been killed by equal neglect on the part of a railway, public passion would have flared up against the corporation. Why is a county, a municipal corporation, to be held less guilty for the crime of neglect by its servants than a private corporation?

Nay, Nay, Doctor; What's the Use?

The American Medical Association is an all right body of scientific men, but like other bodies of men, scientific and non-scientific as well, is liable to make mistakes. For example, it has resolved, among other things, that a law or laws should be enacted requiring every man, woman and child to submit himself or herself to a medical examination once each year.

This is objectionable for many reasons. No person knows better when he is ill or well than the individual himself. True, there might be instances where disorders would be discovered in their incipency, but the chances are many false diagnosis would be made and the number of well persons compelled to take treatment would more than equal the number of incipient sick ones who need it.

The personal liberty question cuts some figure, too. Every man is born with the inalienable right to remain away from the doctor if he so elects—cases of epidemic diseases excepted—and to force him to amble around and submit to stethoscopic, microscopic or other examination just because the law says so, looks like an abridgment of those rights. There does not seem to be anything favorable in promise as a result of such statute, except for the doctors, and while the doctor is a blessing and we all love him, and are quick to shout for his services when we need him, at the same time there is no use in his forcing us to appear each twelvemonth to be looked over.

By a vote of 13,000 to 7365, or a majority of more than 5000, Seattle has defeated a proposed charter providing for a city manager form of government. The voters decisively disapproved of a plan to delegate their powers to an individual under a form not thoroughly tested. Seattle has had plenty of trouble and expense under the recall movement. Mayor Gill was recalled.

It looks as if Seattle had tired of innovations and has determined to settle down to the rule of reason in city affairs and to avoid election, following so closely upon the re-election of Gill, is one more rebuke to the faddists.

By the way, have you registered yet?

WHO SAYS IT'S HOT?

Plan to Reduce Legislation.

Judges of the Superior Court of Alameda county and other counties of the State have received notice of the organization of the new legislative counsel bureau, authorized by the last Legislature for the purpose of preparing for the next Assembly and for discussion of a policy to reduce legislation and to prevent the enactment of unconstitutional, obscure and otherwise defective laws.

This board recently met in Sacramento and elected officers. An expert attorney has been appointed confidential assistant to the chief. It will be his duty to pass on most important measures and give advice. The bureau is designed to form an efficient agency for reducing the volume of legislation, to prevent duplication of measures and make unnecessary the frequent amendments for clerical and frivolous defects so often found in hurriedly prepared measures, and to further secure all the brevity and simplicity consistent with statutory language. Chief Arthur P. Will outlines the duties of the board as follows:

"It is not the purpose of the bureau to oppose or to urge legislation. It will operate in an absolutely non-partisan manner and will receive in strictest confidence whatever requests may come to it.

"A recognized method of procedure is provided by the statute creating the bureau, whereby the judges of the various courts of the State may secure authoritative attention to their suggestions of needed changes in or additions to the laws.

"Letters have been sent to all members of the Senate and the Assembly and to all the judges of the State calling their attention to the organization of the bureau and inviting their co-operation. The chief will from time to time, as occasion seems to demand, visit various sections of the State and consult with members of the Legislature regarding matters that are likely to come up for attention."

The plan is a good one. California, as well as other States, is suffering from too much law. The trend of the times is to cure every evil and foster every scheme by legislative enactment. Statutes have multiplied more rapidly than rabbits and the books are encumbered with pages and pages of laws that are of little value. Every new member wades into the Assembly with an armful of measures calculated to improve conditions and these measures range all the way from regulating the quality of sheep-dip to fixing the rates of transportation on salt mackerel. It is not a new condition by any means, either. It has prevailed for so long that the wisest statesmen have come to agree that the legislator who opposes the passage of new bills, crank though he may be called, is the best legislator.

So if this bureau is to be utilized as a sort of sieve through which these bills will be run, let us hope the screen will be made of as fine mesh as possible to the end that nothing but propositions of gravity and moment may pass through.

Oroville's peach crop is nearly ready for the harvest. It is noted that nearly one hundred men will be employed on one ranch in picking this fruit. All of which goes to show that men appreciate the good things of life and that the peach crop is not entirely confined to the larger centers of population.

With an increase of $349,967 in bank clearings as compared with one year ago, no wonder Oakland is inclined to be a bit cheery.

Cheer up! The Oakdale canteloupe crop is ready for market, and Oakdale canteloupes are the real thing.

Twenty Years Ago Today

E. Kincaid, L. Corrigan and C. H. Corvill are summering at Santa Cruz.

A carload of deputies left the Oakland mole on the Seventh street local for Fruitvale, where they will meet the Sacramento train. They expect trouble. At West Berkeley the strikers are running things to suit themselves. They took the engineer and fireman out of the cab and ran the train themselves. Deputies have been sent for, as the officials are powerless. The train announced to leave the Sixteenth street station did not leave at all. For nearly three hours the train lay in the depot yard, the center of an exciting scene. Hundreds of strikers swarmed in every direction. Chief Schaffer, Detectives Williams and Shorey and Sheriff McCormick were on the platform of the station. The only demonstration which occurred was when the decorated train which brought Mrs. Stanford to Oakland appeared on the homeward journey. As the A. R. U. train at the strikers call it, passed the men cheered wildly, and the engineer answered with shrill blasts on the whistle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Todd of Berkeley have returned from their wedding tour, and are sojourning with Mrs. Todd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Woodall.

The anniversary of the Declaration of Independence will be observed in this city by no general public celebration. Such a celebration was at one time contemplated, but the move started at the wrong time. San Francisco has already entered the field and prepared an attractive program at the Midwinter fair, which will lure many Oaklanders across the bay.

In a communication on Music for Art's Sake, a correspondent says: "When the Prater Orchestra gave the Ninth Symphony it was listened to with that cold respect now accorded Beethoven. But the next number was Lassen's overture on Thuringian Folk songs, and when this critical audience heard 'How Can I Believe Thee' blared out by twelve brass instruments they went fairly mad in the transports of their joy. Again, the petit Bocherini minuet and Shafter Howard's Navy March were adjudged by a very intelligent and high reasoning Oakland audience to be of greater value than Hayden's beautiful Fifth Symphony.

Pelham is said to be the only town in western Massachusetts where the town meeting is still held in the same church where it was held for the first time in the year 1722.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Buying an automobile as his car of romance, Walter Colonel Foerster, poster artist, yesterday eloped with Miss Marietta Hawthorne, 132 Carl street, while her parents were taking their daily constitutional spin in their own motor car.

Contemplating the elopement, Miss Hawthorne sent her tressouree to the Hotel Stewart Wednesday, and yesterday, after luncheon, went there and dressed and hurried away with young Foerster and was married at the parsonage of the German Lutheran Church. The Reverend Struckmeyer performed the ceremony.

Miss Hawthorne's father, William Wright Hawthorne, is a retired mining engineer, who made a fortune in the Klondike.

Foerster is the son of Albert M. Foerster, president of the Palette and Chisel Club of Chicago. Foerster came here a year ago to accept a position as manager of the Lithograph company. He attended Chicago University and is a graduate of the Chicago Art Institute.

En route to Santa Cruz where they will spend part of their honeymoon, the young elopers stopped long enough on reaching San Jose to send a telegram to Mr. and Mrs. Hawthorne craving pardon and blessing.

Somewhere in San Francisco there is already an apartment furnished and awaiting their return but not even their intimate friends know where it is.

Work in Building of Barges.

MARE ISLAND, July 2.—Something out of the ordinary in shipbuilding will occur at the Mare Island navy yard here, when the hull department mechanics will lay the keels of two steel coal barges.

Navy yard officers state that they have of Navy ever heard of listening to the keels of any navy craft at night up to the present time. They also point out that it is due to the fact that the mechanics must wait until the water is removed from the dock No. 2, after the keel has been raised, is placed in the drydock, before the keel can be driven into the barges. The National Association is the only to remain in the dock itself day after day.

Society

MRS. WILLIAM JOHN MASON, WHO CELEBRATED HER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

HERE are two new collures in society. One is slightly less "difficult" than the other, but they are both decidedly severe. Not at all becoming to everyone, but presumably everyone will adopt them, since they made their appearance at the Tillman-Van Eck wedding and are worn by women of the Burlingame set.

One is the more or less soft, old-fashioned "French twist" that one may study in old photographs. Young matrons of a generation or two ago wore "French twists," when Adeline Patti and Clara Morris set the fashion, or the "Princess of Wales" in England.

The other is a futurist effect and on certain bizarre types may be attractive. But the odd thing about fashions is that one designed for bizarre Oriental types will be adopted by every other type from the statuesque Juno to a dainty Dresden shepherdess. It's a phase of the dress question that has never been properly considered.

There is charming Mrs. Roy Somers, who wears the futurist collure. At the Warner-Upham wedding she was a graceful, pretty figure, but her lovely, fair hair was smoothed down close to her head, "plastered" is the word, and drawn so tightly back it looked as though it were painted on her head. It was twisted with a tight knot at the crown that might have been carved from wood and glued on. But it was the fashion and one could only admire it with reservations, and remember the soft, straying tresses of Mrs. Somers' beautiful hair in other seasons.

At the Tillman-Van Eck wedding there were more of the French twist than one would wish to see. And that is the worst of the new collures: matrons are wearing. But the futurist effect was also present and apparently it must be accepted. Happily fashions are ephemeral, mutable, unending. In other words, it can't last.

MISS BROWNELL'S WEDDING. Miss Barbara Brownell has set the date for her wedding to John Martin Jr. for September 2. No further plans are decided upon but it will take place in Oakland, where the charming bride-elect has been one of the attractive belles of society, and where her family has been prominent for many years. The wedding had been planned for later in the fall and the early date will be a surprise to society.

At present Miss Brownell is a guest of the John Martins in Ross Valley, where they have one of the show places of Marin county. She will remain until after the Fourth and will take part in the cavalcade of the Rose Valley set, with whom she is a great favorite.

TO LIVE IN PIEDMONT. Mr. and Mrs. Will Pikes have built a beautiful home in Piedmont and will take possession of it shortly. Their present home is in Jackson street, San Francisco.

TO SAIL FOR GUAM. Mrs. Frances Edwards of Mare Island is the guest of Mrs. Clarence Vincent in Piedmont, where she will remain until Monday, when she will sail on the transport Sheridan for Guam, where her marriage to Lieutenant Roy Stover, U. S. N., will take place.

The Lieutenant, who is aide to the Governor of Guam, was unable to secure leave to come to California for the wedding. A number of friends from Mare Island will gather at the transport dock at Port Mason on Monday to wish the bride-elect bon voyage.

LEUTENANT STOVER'S PREPARATIONS. Lieutenant Stover has prepared attractive quarters for his bride on the island, and they will take up their residence there after the ceremony at the governor's house.

AT THE OAKLAND. Mrs. M. R. Crooke is entertaining her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Crooke, and little Miss Yvonne Crooke at the Hotel Oakland, where they will remain for several weeks. Mrs. Crooke makes her home at the Oakland.

AT THE STONE CAMP. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Somers, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fennmore, went to Guerneville this morning to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Stone and Miss Harriet Stone at the Stone Camp.

There are accommodations for a score of guests at the Stones' picturesque camp on the Russian river, and nearly that many will be in the week-end party, that includes Miss Helen Hinkley and Miss Elsie Porey of Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fennmore have a house in Mill Valley for the summer and will entertain at a number of informal house parties later in the season.

WEST POINT CADET ENTERTAINED. Cadet Raymond Campbell of West Point, who is spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell of San Rafael, is being entertained by his friends on both sides of the bay. He is a member of the Olympic Club, and includes several Alameda men, and among affairs planned in his honor is a dance, at which Mrs. S. L. Potter will be hostess.

Other members of the club are Ensign Hamilton Bryan and Albert Raich of San Francisco.

VISITING MISS BRYAN. Miss Linda Bryan is entertaining a house party over the Fourth at the Prentiss Cobb Hale place at Shasta. Mrs. Hale, who is spending the summer at Woodside, went yesterday to Chaperon, the party, which includes Miss Eugenia Masten, Miss Helen Hamilton and Miss Dorothy Danforth of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McDonald and their two small sons left yesterday for a visit to the Santa Cruz mountains. They will spend a month at Brookside, which is especially gay this year with a number of prominent Oakland people gathered for the season.

Mrs. Henry Van Winkle of San Francisco has opened her picturesque cottage at Brookside, where Miss Anna Van Winkle, who has returned from college in the east, will spend the summer.

IN ROSS VALLEY. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tripler Hutchinson are occupying an attractive place in Ross Valley for the season. Mrs. Hutchinson's mother, Mrs. Charles R. Allen, will spend the greater part of the summer with them. They will return for the wedding of Mrs. Allen's granddaughter, Mrs. Barbara Brownell, and John Martin Jr. on September 2.

RETURNS FROM BEN LOMOND. Mrs. Frank Cruz has returned after a fortnight spent with Mrs. F. J. Toomey at her beautiful summer home at Ben Lomond.

AT SHASTA SPRINGS. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snook, with Charles Snook Jr. and Charles Wade, motored up to Shasta Springs last week for a brief visit.

Mr. C. D. Vincent and Miss Ruth Vincent will be among the visitors at Shasta Springs this month, to remain until the middle of August.

SAIL FOR EUROPE. Dr. and Mrs. Edward von Adelung and their family sailed for Liverpool on June 29 on the Carmarula. They will spend the summer on the continent, and Dr. von Adelung will spend much time in the famous clinics abroad.

LEAVE FOR YELLOWSTONE. Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Plunkett and Walter Plunkett will leave tomorrow for Yellowstone Park. They will spend several days in Salt Lake City and in the Peabody river country before returning to Oakland.

CELEBRATE WEDDING. Dr. and Mrs. William John Mason were given a surprise party a few evenings ago on the fourth anniversary of their marriage. Fifty friends gathered at their residence, Mrs. Mason was formerly Miss Louise Stevenson, daughter of the late George Southledge Stevenson of San Francisco. Dr. and Mrs. Mason will leave shortly for a tour of the south.

HONEYMOON AT TAHOE. Mr. and Mrs. David Fishel, whose wedding was an event of last week in Oakland, are spending their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, where they will remain a fortnight.

On their return they will occupy an attractive residence at 2600 Harwood avenue that has been built for them. Mrs. Fishel was Miss Amy McCormick.

DOMINICAN COLLECTOR QUILTS. WASHINGTON, July 2.—Walter W. Vick of this city, collector of customs in Santo Domingo, has resigned. Ill health is given as the reason at the White House. A successor has not been chosen.

SKIN PEELING NATURE'S Aid to New Complexion. Ordinary mercurized wax is a natural beautifier. By flaking off the devitalized surface skin, it merely hastens nature's gradual process of renewing the healthy, youthful color produced by capillary circulation. This because the capillaries are thus brought nearer the surface; also because the new skin is unclouded by sun, wind or dirt. This wax, to be had at any drug store (an ounce will do), is put on slightly like cold cream, washed off morning and evening with warm water. It works sensibly enough not to show too marked results in any day to day, or cause discomfort or irritation.

A face bath to remove wrinkles, made by dissolving an ounce of powdered salicylic acid in a half pint of water, is another natural beautifier, since its astringent and tonic properties smooth out wrinkles in accordance with Nature's own process.

Take Time to Keep Well

(By Lillian Russell)

Copyright, By LILLIAN RUSSELL.

A LITTLE self-scrutiny is profitable. You must get your mental attitude toward yourself straight. You can always take the time to keep well. I know a surprisingly large number of women who complain of one ailment or another, and declare that they haven't time to cure themselves.

One woman has a scalp disease; her hair is falling out by handfuls. Another woman has a cold, and she is putting it off for the pleasure of the trip. I deplore the state of her mind; she thinks of pleasure before health, totally oblivious to the fact that to enjoy anything in this world one must be healthy.

The woman who sits at a table and eats everything and anything, at the same time saying that she knows it will make her ill, has not the moral courage of her own convictions.

How welcome healthy people are everywhere, and how dismal is the society of invalids! Some women thoroughly enjoy poor health. They parade it everywhere, and are insulted when not asked how they are feeling. They keep their poor health ever in their minds and the minds of those around them until they have a very thought force directed their way, condoning, sympathizing or condemning them and keeping them ill.

There are only two ways to treat illness, either say nothing about it and keep it to yourself, or go at it once and be cured. Sympathy is harmful, for it keeps the thought of illness before one.

Putting off a duty to oneself is contempt for oneself. If you do not respect yourself and your health, who is going to respect you? Bad teeth, bad eyes, bad skin, and bad hair are the result of personal neglect, and all lead to diseases of some sort. Neglected teeth lead to all sorts of stomach disorders. Bad eyes can break down the whole nervous system.

Remember! Take time to keep well. Your happiness depends upon your state of health.

Answers to Queries.

MRS. N. E.—From the description you give me I think you must be troubled with a goiter, and would advise you to consult a physician immediately. If you take this in time you will have no trouble later on. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall gladly send you formulas for dandruff and sunburn.

B. E. L.—It is never advisable to use glycerine on one's face. It will make the skin dry in time and yellow and your face will become full of tiny wrinkles. Whether you can use glycerine on your face is a question you will have to decide for yourself. Everybody cannot use it with the greatest success and others cannot use it alone or anything that has glycerine in it. I have never known of glycerine to cause a growth of hair on the face. I am sending you the formula for a cold cream, which is excellent for the face. It will improve your complexion wonderfully. It is also good for chapped hands and lips.

MISS F. E. D.—You failed to send me your address, so I cannot send you the formulas you ask for. I shall do so as soon as I receive a stamped addressed envelope.

SKIN PEELING NATURE'S Aid to New Complexion. Ordinary mercurized wax is a natural beautifier. By flaking off the devitalized surface skin, it merely hastens nature's gradual process of renewing the healthy, youthful color produced by capillary circulation. This because the capillaries are thus brought nearer the surface; also because the new skin is unclouded by sun, wind or dirt. This wax, to be had at any drug store (an ounce will do), is put on slightly like cold cream, washed off morning and evening with warm water. It works sensibly enough not to show too marked results in any day to day, or cause discomfort or irritation.

'GENERAL' JONES TO VISIT OAKLAND TO LEARN HOW SUFFRAGE WORKS

"GENERAL" ROSALIE JONES, famous suffrage leader, who will include Oakland in her visit to California cities.

Oakland will have a visit from "General" Rosalie Jones, suffrage leader and heroine of a famous hike from New York to Washington. The celebrated advocate of "votes-for-women" is on her way to California to secure data for use in the Eastern and Los Angeles are included in her stopping places.

She plans to visit the states in the West that have equal suffrage and learn first hand how it works. Particularly, she will pay close attention to the manner in which the Western women gained the right to vote.

When she has learned all she can East and there try a new plan of her own to secure the right for women to vote.

"General" Rosalie Jones is described as a charming and pleasant young woman who takes pride in calling herself a suffragette, denying that she is a suffragist. She says that there is a material distinction between the terms, the former presiding over meetings and participating in the actual work while the latter, she says, are "content to preside over the 'scaps and wash'."

Her first stop will be in Denver, where she will study the Colorado laws and equal suffrage here.

AMERICANS IN SEMI-FINAL VICTORIES

Harvard and Boston Win Today's Event for Grand Challenge Cup.

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, July 3.—The coveted grand challenge cup goes to the United States.

Two American eight-oared crews, the Union Boat Club of Boston and the Harvard University second crew, were left to fight tomorrow for its possession by victories today in the semi-final heats over Mayence and Winnipeg respectively.

Both were most exciting races, rowed in almost flat time and won only after a hard struggle near the finishing line in each instance.

Wet weather and a strong wind did not cause either of the American crews to vary their almost perfect watermanship, which called forth the admiration of English experts.

The race between Harvard and Winnipeg, which came first, was a hard one and resulted in the best time recorded at this year's regatta, 7 minutes flat. This has been beaten only on three occasions in the grand challenge cup since official time records have been kept. In 1891 Leander rowed the final in 6 minutes and 31 seconds, and this was equaled by New College, Oxford, in the final in 1897. Leander in 1905 did the course in 6 minutes and 58 seconds.

Winnipeg went away to 21 strokes to the first half minute and 47 to the first minute, while Harvard struck 20 to the half minute and 34 to the minute.

HARVARD PUSHES AHEAD.

At the half-mile the boats were even, but before the half-way mark was reached Harvard had pushed a little ahead. The time was 3 minutes and 24 seconds.

The Canadians then spurred and Harvard replaced, Harvard then went in front and at the mile were leading by three-quarters of a length.

When the second semi-final started excitement was tense, the shells getting off to a good start. The Germans began with 31 strokes to the first minute against Boston's 40. Boston took the lead at once and was leading by a good quarter of a length at the quarter mile.

At the half-mile Boston was leading by a half length, but lost a little of their advantage before the half-way mark was reached.

A magnificent effort by the Germans in passing the grandstand brought them closer together, but the Bostonians passed the line with only part of the oiled silk covering the nose of their boat in front. Their time was 1 minute flat, the same as made by their fellow countrymen.

Giuseppe Sinigaglia of Como, Italy, beat Robert Dibble of Toronto, Canada, American amateur sculler champion, in the second semi-final of the elimination sculls.

The Italian won by five lengths in 8 minutes and 21 seconds. Dibble collapsed at the winning post and fell out of the boat, but was rescued.

CUPS PAST HISTORY.

The grand challenge cup has left England only on four other occasions. It was captured by the Royal Naval Club of Ghent, Belgium, in 1906, 1907, and 1909, and by the Sydney Rowing Club, New South Wales, in 1912.

Many other American and foreign crews have tried for it in previous years. In 1882 Cornell was defeated in the fifth heat by Trinity. In 1898 Yale fell before Leander in the first heat; in 1897 Utrecht University succumbed to Leander in the third heat; in 1899 the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto, Canada, was beaten by London in the sixth heat; in 1900 the Royal Naval Club of Ghent, Belgium, lost to Leander in the third heat; in 1901 the University of Pennsylvania went down before Leander in the first heat and the Royal Naval Club of Ghent lost in the final; in the third heat in 1902 the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto was beaten by Third Trinity in the fifth heat; in 1905 the Royal Naval Club of Ghent lost to Leander in the final, after the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia had defeated by the same club in the fourth heat, and in 1905 the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto was defeated by Trinity Hall in the seventh heat.

Notorious Bandit Hunted by Poses

PENDLETON, Ore., July 3.—Poses in the Blue Mountains today continued their searching for the two or possibly three highwaymen who escaped yesterday after holding up Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company Train No. 5, near Meacham, Oregon. The body of the highwayman who was killed was positively identified today as Hugh Whitney, the notorious desperado, on whose head had been set a price of nearly $500.

The general opinion is that the bandits had struck directly into the mountain fastnesses, either up or on horses. George McDuffey, deputy sheriff, a passenger on the train, who killed Whitney and wounded another of the robbers, was pronounced out of danger.

NO HUSBAND, BUT $25,000 VERDICT IS BALM FOR DESERTED WIFE HER LETTERS PAY HIS BILL

MRS. LOUISE HAYWARD of Los Angeles, who sued wealthy family of her husband for alienation of affection. She asked the court to give her $100,000, but must be contented with mere $25,000.

LOS ANGELES, July 3.—Twenty-five thousand dollars, the largest verdict ever returned in California in an alienation suit, was awarded late yesterday to Mrs. Louise E. Hayward by a jury in Judge Houser's court. She charged the family of Dr. Henderson Hayward, a millionaire hotel owner, with alienating the affections of her husband. She sued for $100,000.

Two letters, "Before" and "After," the Alpha and Omega of the romance of Lester Hayward, were displayed before the jury at yesterday's session.

The first letter—"Before"—pays a high tribute to the young wife. It also speaks of her high social position and tells of how, after a secret romance, they had married so that he could quickly get out of the army.

A DUNNING LETTER. The second letter—"After"—says Lester Hayward is disgusted with his wife and begs his brother Thomas to pay his board bill of $60.

In return for Thomas paying the board bill Lester Hayward promised to send more letters that his wife had written him in confidence and which he had not turned over to his family to aid them in the defense of the suit the young wife had brought against the family.

The first letter, written from Fort Monroe and called the "marriage letter," the Alpha and "before," follows:

My Dear Brother: I send you under separate cover—or at least my wife, Louise, did—her picture. I want my marriage kept a secret until I leave here, which will be about the 18th of this month. Will advise you if I don't hear from you before that time. I don't want you or anyone to think my wife a woman of ordinary standing, for she is not. I know Laura will know her after you tell her who she is. Her uncle is Admiral Reggie Nicholson. Her aunt is Miss Nicholson of Rockville, Md. Her grandmother is Catherine A. Alexandria, and Alexandria, Va., is named after her family.

ARMY RECORD SECRET. Louise's people do not know I am a soldier and will never know, for the reason she married me was so I could get away from home, for we intended not to be married until I was out of the service, but my application was rejected and am refilling another today mentioning the fact I am married. Louise is in the best of health and is very fond of you. D. C. and if you cannot write anything pleasant I would sooner none of you write me at all. We have a residence at Atlantic City and one in Washington, D. C. Louise has a grapefruit grove at Palm Beach. Best regards to all. I suppose you will think this is a puzzle where I got acquainted with her, etc., but that is a question and no one knows. This is my third marriage. Adelaide, who died, and have been divorced, but am now married again, so keep all of this to yourself, and if you care to look her up, my wife is in this country. Write soon. Lovingly your brother, LESTER.

you all will think this is a puzzle where I got acquainted with her, etc., but that is a question and no one knows. This is my third marriage. Adelaide, who died, and have been divorced, but am now married again, so keep all of this to yourself, and if you care to look her up, my wife is in this country. Write soon. Lovingly your brother, LESTER.

GOOD NEWS?

Dear Tom: Mr. Ghilardi of 4448 E. Fort street is sending you a bill for my board, etc. Lawson has kept putting him off as well as myself for a long time.

I am disgusted with Louise and her attorneys and can't live off her promises any longer and am willing to do as you ask me to do.

I hope you will give this your immediate attention, awaiting your answer to me and let me know. The bill amounts to $60.65. I hope this will be good news and have more letters to forward to you in relation to the case. Write me at once and attend to this matter, as this man needs his money very badly. Send check direct to him. Love to Carrie. Lovingly,

BROTHER LESTER. Best regards to father.

WOMAN SLAYER SOUGHT BY POLICE

"I'm Suspected," Laments Dr. Carman's Wife, Not Summoned to Inquest.

FREEPORT, N. Y., July 3.—Search of the grounds of the Carman home, which extended even to an examination of wells and cesspools, has failed to reveal the weapon with which Mrs. Louise Hayward of Hempstead was murdered on Tuesday night while preparing to leave the office of Dr. Edwin Carman.

Freeport policemen with lanterns last night went over every foot of ground about the Carman place, while others drained cesspools and wells. The unusual scene attracted a large crowd of villagers. No one, however, was permitted beyond the sidewalks.

LEWIS J. Smith, district attorney, announced today that he had found two men, both negroes, who declared they had seen a man run away from a window of Dr. Carman's office through which the shot was fired that killed Mrs. Bailey. The man, two new witnesses said, carried his hat in his hand but the best description they could give of him was that he was of medium size.

NO ARREST YET. At the same time Sheriff Pettit announced that as yet there did not appear to be sufficient evidence at hand to warrant him in making an arrest. Sheriff Pettit spent three hours with Dr. and Mrs. Carman last night.

"If there is an arrest it will be a

"Before" and "After" letters are read in courtroom as evidence in "love war."

Husband offered to help family in court trouble.

Every man in the case has been eliminated. One man who has been under suspicion, the sheriff explained, had proved an alibi. He had been questioned several times. Sheriff Pettit said, and had accounted for every moment of his time on the night of the murder.

Two men and two women who were in Dr. Carman's office when the shot was fired are expected to be the chief witnesses at the inquest today. One of these witnesses, George Golden, a teamster, told the prosecutor that 10 minutes before the murder he saw a woman dressed in white standing in front of the house.

The funeral of Mrs. Bailey will be held on Saturday.

WIFE NOT SUMMONED. The name of Dr. Edwin Carman's wife did not appear on the list of witnesses summoned for the inquest this afternoon into the death of Mrs. Louise Bailey, who was murdered in Dr. Carman's office last Tuesday night.

Since almost everyone else in and about the physician's house that night had been notified to appear at the inquest, the omission of Mrs. Carman's name caused much comment.

The district attorney explained he had excellent reasons for not calling Mrs. Carman.

It was understood he desired to reserve her testimony for the grand jury, unimpaired by any premature revelations at the inquest.

Among those called were Archer Post, Joseph Golden and Miss Hazel Combs, patients, who were waiting in Dr. Carman's outer office when Mrs. Bailey was murdered.

A man named Burke, resident of a neighboring village, had been summoned. It was said, to repeat a story he had told a detective when he said he had seen a woman dressed in white running away from the window of the doctor's office immediately after the shooting.

SUSPECTED, SHE ADMITS. Talking over the telephone today Mrs. Carman declared that she wanted to testify at the inquest and was ready to tell all she knew.

"I realize fully that in a measure I am under suspicion," she said, "and that at the present moment I am restrained as to my statements."

Mrs. Carman denied a story that several weeks ago she had attacked a woman patient in her husband's office.

She repeated her declaration that she had never seen Mrs. Bailey until she looked upon her dead body at the morgue yesterday afternoon.

"Were you jealous of Mrs. Bailey?" she was asked.

"No, indeed," she answered.

Count Robbed of $24,000 on Train.

CALAIS, France, July 3.—Count Mourlon had been robbed of jewelry valued at $20,000 and $1,000 in money. The robbery took place while the count was proceeding by the boat train to Paris.

COLONEL RESTS HALF HOUR MORE

Political Conference Then Follows, and Long Ride, Despite Doctor's Orders.

OYSTER BAY, July 3.—Colonel Roosevelt today gave a fresh demonstration of how he meant to observe the doctor's decree for a six weeks' rest. He slept a mere half-hour longer than usual. Then for an hour he was at work with John McGrath, his political secretary.

Later horses were brought out and with his daughter, Mrs. Richard Derby Jr., he galloped off for a long ride.

The one rule which the colonel said he would enforce for the next six weeks was that of seeing few visitors and none at all with whom he had not made appointments previously.

Colonel Roosevelt's conference last night with Mayor Mitchell was a cause of much conjecture today. One theory of Nassau county politicians was that Colonel Roosevelt and Mayor Mitchell discussed the possibility of the nomination for governor of an independent Democrat who would receive the support of the Progressives in case the regular Democratic nominee should be unsatisfactory.

AFTER WILSON AGAIN. If the Wilson administration puts through the treaty with Colombia providing for the payment of $25,000,000, declared Theodore Roosevelt, in a statement last night, it will forfeit the right to the respect of the people of the United States.

Colonel Roosevelt's statement was drawn out by that of James T. Dubois, former minister to Colombia, who assailed the acts of the Roosevelt administration in connection with the Panama revolution.

The former President barely referred to the Dubois statement, however, and plunged into a denunciation of the treaty before the Senate.

"I have nothing to say about Dubois," the colonel said in his statement. "He was merely an instrument, PRESIDENT RESPONSIBLE."

"Wilson is responsible for the payment of the blackmail to Colombia. Whether he did it or not, he is responsible or at the instigation of Bryan is wholly unimportant, and it is of infinitely less importance what particular subordinate was chosen to carry through the discreditable transaction or to apologize for it in the public press."

"Neither Wilson nor Bryan can answer my statement. The payment, if made, will be a naked payment of belated blackmail and the mere proposal to make it is an outrage on the honor and a heavy blow to the interests of the American people."

"There is small wonder that many hundreds of Americans in Mexico have been endeavoring to become British, German or French subjects in order to get some protection from some government."

"An administration that will conclude such a treaty as this for the purpose of blackmailing Colombia has forfeited the right to the respect of the people of the United States."

NEW YORK, July 3.—Three persons, two women and a man, are dead, as a result of an early morning fire in an East One Hundred and Twelfth street tenement. Mrs. Hannah Nickoll, 45, and her 17-year-old daughter were burned to death, and Jacob Finkelstein died in a hospital. PROMOTER CONVICTED OF $475,000 FRAUD

NEW YORK, July 3.—William H. Cooper, formerly head of the New York Central Realty Company, charged with using the mails to defraud some 600 investors out of $475,000, was found guilty today by a jury in the federal court.

Many of his victims were officers and enlisted men in the United States army and marine corps. Sentence was deferred.

Cooper's company went into bankruptcy with few or no assets and Cooper and other officers were arrested. Claude J. Van A. Slick, James A. Robinson and Ernest S. Cooper, Cooper's associates, were indicted with him.

Van Slick and Robinson pleaded guilty and took the stand against their former chief. Sharp awaits trial.

most as hot, John James, a seaman, was brought to the Emergency Hospital this morning with a badly burned hand. The lad had been watching a blacksmith at work near his home. The man had dropped a shoe, when it lost its red color, looked cool. The boy tried to restore it to the rack.

LIE DOWN TO EAT AND SAVE HEART, DOCTOR'S ADVICE

ATLANTIC CITY, July 3.—Telling means longevity and would save the present generation from heart disease, declared Dr. G. Harlan Wells of the Hahnemann Medical college, Philadelphia, in a paper read today before the American Institute of Homeopathy.

"It means that the heart should lie down to rest the blood through the arteries and veins. It means that more than four feet from the ground daily during the time an ordinary human being is awake. People of the earlier periods and the savages lolled at every opportunity, stretching out flat while eating and lying on their backs while reading. They didn't have heart disease, and the copying of their methods would save the present generation from that ailment."

Dr. J. I. Dowling of Albany, N. Y., president of the American Homeopathic Ophthalmological, Otorhinological and Laryngological Society, said the people of today need instruction in the use of the handkerchief, especially the "family handkerchief."

The latter article was used in many homes, often with disastrous results.

SHE CHOKES THIEF

Aged Woman Throttles Robber After Husband Fells Him With Club.

TORVILLE, Ill., July 3.—A dramatic story of a fight to the death in the dark with a masked robber, who invaded their home early today, was told by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Greenwood, an aged couple, who live on a farm two miles east of here.

The robber died as she was throttling him. Mrs. Greenwood said, after he had been thrown to the floor by her husband. She is a large and powerful woman, although 60 years of age.

Before Mrs. Greenwood got into the fight her husband and the robber—the farmer with a club and the robber with a ten-pick—circled round and round in the dark, lunging and striking.

Their heavy breathing was all that guided their blows.

At length one of Greenwood's swings crashed on the robber's head and he fell. Mrs. Greenwood, awakened by the rushing sound of feet leaped on the robber, seizing him by the throat. She choked him, while her husband got up, struck a light and went after a rope to bind the man. The robber died as her husband came back.

Papers found in the robber's pocket bore the name of William Davis.

Trade Commission Bill To Be Debated Long

WASHINGTON, July 3.—When the Senate tomorrow takes up the trade commission bill today indications were that a vote hardly would be reached for several days. With several senators having given notice that they desired to discuss the bill, it was practically certain that debate would continue well into next week.

Repeated attempts have been made by Democratic leaders to fix a time for a vote on the bill, but without success. Despite this, however, determined efforts were to be made to press for a vote at the earliest possible moment. With the trade commission bill disposed of the way would then be cleared for consideration of the remainder of the anti-trust program which is to be passed before Congress adjourns.

ARSONETTES DESTROY PRICELESS TREASURES

BELFAST, Ireland, July 3.—An arson of suffragettes today burned Ballymenagh, a fine mansion near Holywood. The house contained many priceless art treasures, all of which were destroyed.

Ballymenagh was the residence of the late Sir Lionel Dixon, lord mayor of Belfast for many years and a member of Parliament for some time.

The suffragettes left the usual evidences of their presence.

Chinese General on Revolutionary Mission

TOKYO, July 3.—It is reported that the Chinese general, Huang-Sing, who last year was in command of the rebel army in southern China and whose head President Yuan Shi Kai placed a price, has sailed for San Francisco on the steamer Tenyo Maru from Yokohama, bound for France, in connection with plans for the Chinese revolutionists.

FOREIGN INCOME TAX SWELLS FRENCH BUDGET

PARIS, July 3.—The Senate last night voted to include in the 1914 budget the 5 per cent tax to be collected upon incomes received in France from foreign stocks, bonds and securities of whatever form, including government bonds. It was the refusal of the Senate to include this tax in the budget which prevented the passage of the budget before the chamber dissolved for the elections.

The Chamber of Deputies last night unanimously expressed its approval of the clause in the electoral reform bill providing for proportional representation as passed several times in the last chamber. A motion was accepted by the government inviting the universal suffrage committee to expedite its examination of the bill.

WILSON PROUD OF WORK OF DELEGATES

The Constitutionalists May Not End Endeavors to Treat With Huerta.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The American delegates to the Niagara mediation conference, Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, returned to the capital today and conferred with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. While the Niagara conference is in recess awaiting Carranza's canvass of his generals under the plan of Guadalupe as to sending delegates to treat with Huerta's emissaries, the American delegates will remain in Washington and the three South American mediators will return here and keep in touch with the situation, awaiting the next move.

Egias Calderon, one of the Constitutionalists leaders, who is expected to represent Carranza, if he sends delegates, said today he did not believe the canvass of Constitutionalists chiefs would authorize sending delegates to treat with Huerta unless they want to discuss terms of surrender.

John R. Silliman, formerly vice-consul at Saltillo, left Washington today for Mexico as President Wilson's envoy to attempt to induce Constitutionalists leaders to mediate their differences with Huerta and to bring about harmony between Carranza and Villa. Silliman had a final conference with the President. He would not discuss his mission.

While Carranza is canvassing his generals on meeting the Huerta delegate, Silliman is expected to tell the Constitutionalists of the importance attached to that proposal by the Washington administration.

Silliman was raised to the full rank of consul later, it was announced, but not at this time, because such an act might be construed as recognition of Huerta.

President Wilson greeted the American delegates warmly.

"I'm proud of the way you represented the United States," said he.

MARINES TO CAMP.

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, Mazatlan, Mexico, July 2 (by wireless to San Diego, July 3).—The cruiser South Dakota departed last night for San Diego, carrying two battalions of marines for a summer encampment at Coronado, near San Diego. The remaining battalions of marines will leave for San Diego aboard the cruiser West Virginia today.

Word was received that merchants of Guaymas have refused to pay a forced loan of $20,000 to officers of the Federal army, and it is feared that trouble may result.

START NEW REVOLT.

MEXICO CITY, July 3.—The lower house of congress yesterday passed a bill authorizing the executive to loan a $5,000,000 peso interest loan. The bill was sent to the senate for ratification.

Constantino Lloca, a former member of congress, has started a revolt against the government at Cadarsya, in the province of Queretaro. The government is taking steps to check the advance of Constitutionalists under command of Pablo Gonzales, who is reported proceeding to Tampico to attack Pachuca City.

The war office reports that the Federals have defeated the Constitutionalists at El Pasque, along the railroad between the capital and Cuernavaca.

MINISTER AT BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, July 3.—Dr. Ramulo S. Naon, minister from Argentina and one of the mediators in the Mexican situation, is at a hotel here today. He planned a sightseeing trip around the city, and expected to leave for Washington on an evening train.

Murray and Chip, Primed for Holiday Match, Await Call to Arena

American Crews Win at Henley Sassy Sassy Seals Again If Oaks Are Dreaming Don't Wake 'Em

CHIP RULES FAVORITE OVER BILLY MURRAY IN WAGERING

Local Middleweight Knocks Off Training, But Easterner Continues Work.

(BY THE TIMEKEEPER.)

George Chip has been placed a 10 to 6 favorite over Billy Murray in the match to be fought tomorrow afternoon at Daly City, and some wagering at even money is being done. The odds are not too far from the actual value of the fight, as the odds have been the poor showing Murray has made in training quarters, as on both days when large crowds have watched the Californian, the workout has been poor.

Murray has apparently been in good condition, and his wife has never seemed to bother him, throughout his training, but the pace he had set with sparring partners much later than shown him to be slow. Whether this is a deliberate ruse on the part of Murray and his manager, Jack Kearns, in order to lengthen the odds is uncertain, but any rate Murray has been placed on the short end.

When the rumor that Murray had been held back was put to Jack Kearns, the latter greeted the suggestion as absurd. "He is not held back," he said, "he is off work for the last two days, just to give him a chance to live up, and gain a little rest."

George Chip will probably do no boxing, as both his brother and Tom McMahon, who have been training the middleweight, are tired and neither is feeling like another day's roughing it with the Newcastle box. George is now down to weight, and will take a stiff course of shadow boxing and punching today. "Just to whet up my appetite," as the Easterner termed it.

When informed that the fans had placed him a 10-6 favorite over Murray, Chip held up the left fist that put Sailor Pirovich on the mat, and said to those present, "There's a reason."

"I am going into this match just the same," he said, "and I will win. My one object is a knockout, and Murray will be lucky one if he makes it to evade my hay-maker for the full twenty rounds."

There has been nothing to say about the match, but prefers to let his manager, Jack Kearns, do the talking.

"Billy is out to win the fight, and when tomorrow night comes, there will be no dispute as to who will meet the winner of the Clabby-McGorty match. Murray, who is a tough fighter, will be a man in sight, and he will be Billy Murray."

Promoter Coffroth received a wife last night from Ed. Reddy, manager of Mike McGehee, who is expected to fight on August 1. Since the Azevedo-White bout is already scheduled to take place in the first of August, the fight will be the first of Gibbons appearing with the winner of tomorrow's match before the last of August, or the first part of September.

The result of the Clabby-McGorty match will probably be received here late last night or early in the morning, as the fans will remember in the case of the Johnson-Burns match. While the match in the Antipodes is scheduled for the first of July, the fight will be placed this afternoon, as their time is more than 12 hours ahead of our time.

Just a little look at the good scrapers of whom the American public is forced to read, not see:

Moran, Johnson, Ritchie, Gumbert Smith, Kennedy, Ross, Lewis and Harry Stone engaged across the Atlantic, and McGorty, Jeff Smith, Clabby, Bronson, Saylor and Shugrue all battling for entertainment of the Antipodean fans across the Pacific.

A most unusual state of affairs, sure enough, when his honor, the American fan, must listen instead of look.

Regarding an erroneous report that Gilbert Gallant was defeated recently by Joe Light, who is now in the hands of the Boston lightweight, writes, in part, as follows:

"Dundes and Gilbert Gallant never met in the ring. From last October, when he knocked out Joe Egan in two rounds, on June 22, 1914, Gilbert Gallant did not box in Boston. On the latter date Gilbert Gallant was in New York, where he was championed by Eddie Murphy at the Atlas Athletic Association here. The indicated clippings from the Boston newspapers will verify the statement."

Dundes did box a young fellow named Johnny Gallant in Boston on June 16, 1914, and defeated him in eight rounds, but the two boxers are not even relatives.

While they are almost obscured by the big events in the world, the men who are working away for their battle in San Diego tomorrow afternoon. The prevailing odds place the winner of the fight, although betting is slow. The promoters have converted the San Diego ball park into a stadium, and seats have been prepared to accommodate 8000 spectators.

Jack Root, ex-heavyweight fighter, has been selected as referee for the bout. The men have agreed to make 135 pounds at 10 o'clock on the morning of the contest.

Joe Azevedo came down from Sacramento today and informed his manager, Jimmy Rohan, that he had discovered a knot in the tail of his champion's 200-pound tramp in his vegetable garden the other day and they mixed it. Joe's family corroborates the claim that the lightweight won on a knockout.

Sacramento 3, San Francisco 0.

Los Angeles 1, Oakland 1.

Portland 2, Venice 1.

Anybody who thinks he can figure baseball has odds in his favor. We may have remarked some time to that effect before, but it goes down now. Last week the Seals dropped four straight to Venice and then turned around and beat the Tigers 15 to 1. You remember how the Oaks dropped a slough of games to Portland and yet turned right around and slammed out sixteen hits and six runs.

The Seals lost to Sacramento, 17 to 4, and then turned around and held them to two small scores, 10 and 6. The Oaks are hopelessly walloped Tuesday and Wednesday by the Angels and on Thursday they turn around and paddle Dillon's devil for seventeen runs and 24 hits. "No use, Marguerite," "no use at all."

Kid Elmhurst seems to be an exploded phenomenon. He has been walloped all over the lot on his last four starts. Beginning yesterday down south, five Oaks singled in a row and then Zacher tripled and the Seals were out.

Los Angeles fans and scribes had a lot of fun kidding the Oaks over the result of the first two games, but they closed their eyes when the mail started yesterday. No team ever made so many hits in Los Angeles before in one game.

Captain Tommy Tennant of the Sacramento club is celebrating his 25th birthday today. Cute young thing!

Spider Baum got his second hit of the season yesterday and had a terrific head start on Harry Allen.

There was some weird battery work in the game yesterday, both Sepulveda and Hannah permitting passed balls on the third strike and allowing the runners to reach first safely. In the case of Sepulveda it cost the game.

Del Howard had an off day at first. In the sixth inning he dropped a throw from Corban that would have retired Young and in the ninth inning, with two on, he dropped a snap throw from Baum which would have caught napping off first and retired the side.

On the play Orr went to second and scored with the winning run when Hannah singled.

What a grand old man is Deacon Van Pelt! The veteran outfielder made two catches in succession yesterday. Just as spectacular and difficult as any ever seen on the same lot. He robbed the New York Giants of a home run catch and retired O'Leary on a foul for which he had to race exactly in the opposite direction. Coming up to the plate later he responded to applause by singling sharply to center.

The Wolf victory was popular, Oakland fans cheering loudly when the Seals went down to defeat in the ninth. Probably this was a tribute to Harry Wolfson for whom Oakland still has a warm spot in its heart.

Eddie Colligan is back with the Wolves and ready for work. His wife has happily recovered from the illness that took the infielder east.

Billy Orr played a bang-up game at third. The local lad is certainly a finished fielder and has bolstered up Wolfson's infield.

Eddie Hallinan is troubled with a sore arm that is giving him no end of trouble. He is hardly able to throw a ball ten feet.

Corban was back in his old form at short. His picture of Baum's low throw in the third and pay first to complete a double play was first class.

That old rule of run 'em out was illustrated with good results in the third. Schaller struck out and Hannah dropped the ball. But wasn't going to run at first, but thought better of it and retired his base because the runner was hit with the ball.

There was a mixup at the plate in the eighth inning. Howard tried to score from first on Corban's double, but Hannah was blocked and the runner was forced to hurdle. Hannah held the ball and tagged out Del.

HONOLULU FANS READY TO GIVE PLAYERS BIG TIME

Bert Lowry Tells of Plans for the Reception of Coasters.

Herbert G. Lowry, former sporting editor of THE TRIBUNE, but now a resident of Honolulu, where he has been located for the last year and a half, will be a departing passenger accompanied by his wife in the steamer Sonoma next Tuesday afternoon, for Hawaii. Lowry arrived here several weeks ago under instructions from Joel C. Cohen, a Islands, to sign up the Venice team of the Coast League or an equally as fast aggregation for a series of ball games around the islands next November.

Last Saturday night Messrs. Hogan and Bliss of the Venice team with Lowry completed final arrangements for the invasion of the Tigers and at the close of the Coast League season, fourteen of Hogan's men, including Umpire Jack McCarty, will journey to the Paradise of the Pacific for a series of seven games with various teams of the islands. Edwin R. Mather, owner of the Venice team, accompanied by his family as well as several prominent Elks and Shriners, are also contemplating the trip and Lowry has been requested by Mr. Mather to make hotel reservations for at least thirty people besides the ball team.

"This is going to be one of the greatest trips a ball team ever took," said Lowry to THE TRIBUNE representative yesterday at the ball game. "While the Tigers will not cover as vast a field as did the Chicago Sox and Giants, they are going to just as beautiful a spot as did any of McGraw and Comiskey's travelers. Mr. Cohen, who is one of the best sportsmen on the islands, is as keen for the coming of the Tigers as are the fans of Honolulu and everything possible will be done to make their journey one they will never forget."

"Baseball in Honolulu is making rapid strides toward perfection and it is my prediction right now that Hogan's bunch will be given some hard games by the island players."

"Our teams are so vastly different from those in any other part of the world and no other spot on the globe can boast so many different aggregations as does Hawaii. Free to star the Honolulu team, here is a line-up of the line-up they presented against the strong California University team when the Chinese won by a score of 6 to 4 last Sunday week: Kai Luke K. Sing Hung Jr., Lui Tin ss, Akana cf, Kwalt 2b, Lung Cheong 1b, Hoon Kl c, Asam 3b, and Luck Yee p. Every one of these men are fast on their feet, great throwers and swell hitters."

"Japan is represented by the Asahis, and every man hails from the land of Mikado. Chinito Moriama, their pitcher, and Nishi, their catcher, are wonderful little players, and will make a good impression against the mainlanders."

Who Hawaiians are represented in the league by the Hawaii, and, outside of Barney Joy, whom fans remember as a Seal some years ago, and one or two others, every man hails from the islands.

"Uncle Sam is represented in the league by the Coast Defense team, made up of soldiers from the various coast defense regiments situated along the coast of Oahu. This team has played wonderfully well since Lieutenant Van Dusen took charge and Honolulu fans pick them to win the pennant for the 1914 season."

They have several thousand Portuguese about Honolulu and they are strong in the National game, being represented in the league by the Portuguese Athletic Club. Former mainland colleges are represented by the Punahou Athletic Club, managed by A. J. Cullen, who was pitcher at Harvard University several years ago. Argabright, formerly of Stanford, and Henshaw, an infielder of the team also at one time with the Cardinal team also play with Punahou. Charles Lyman, a Lieutenant in the Second Infantry, and at one time catcher for the West Point team, also plays with Punahou. There is also the St. Louis Alumni team and the umpire staff, composed of Captain Morris Stetson of the Tenth Coast Artillery and George Bruns, is a first-class combination. With the former and Jack McCarthy working in the infield and Bruns acting as umpire in the field, our games with the Tigers will be well taken care of.

"Besides this league we have an all army league at Schofield Barracks, where 8000 of Uncle Sam's fighting men are located. There are also companies of Chinese, artillery, one cavalry and four companies of infantry located here and each company of each regiment has a ball team, making at least fifty ball teams there alone. There are also several all-company teams and that of the Fourth Cavalry, the First Field Artillery and the Twenty-fifth Infantry are in a warm race at present for the army championship of the islands."

"The Fourth Cavalry and First Field Artillery teams are made up of white men, while the Twenty-fifth Infantry is composed of colored men, and this team is rated the fastest organization of the islands, a claim which, of course, is disputed and which causes many a warm and interesting ball game to be played particularly on Sundays."

"As my schedule is now arranged at home, I can not go with them, but I have arranged an elaborate program as well as the guests of many of the prominent sportsmen of the islands."

"Vertly the Venice Tigers are in for one of the greatest times of their lives."

The followers of the healthy outdoor sports have centered their attention on the big meet to be held at Suro Baths beginning today and lasting through the 4th and 5th. This will be unquestionably the greatest meet ever held in the islands.

The two great clubs of the islands are well represented. The Iul Nalus are championed by Duke Kahamoku, Dr. Kalipiko, Huiatace and Long. The Heanalei club will be supported by the Cuhua brothers, Willard Grace, Gus Krueger and Geo. Grace.

The chief competition to the dusky beach men will come from the array of national champions from the Illinois Athletic club of Chicago. Harry Heber, Harry McGilvray, Art Ralibath, Michael McDermott, Conrad Wolfied and Max Mott are all in tip top shape in their special events.

The Army city will depend upon Ludy Langer, Cliff Bowes, Ray Henderson, John Howard and Sol Tuttle for its points.

The local talent is by no means to be depreciated in figuring the final score. Bab Smith, Walter Pomeroy, Geo. Bond, Scott Leary, Reg. Caughy and Jine Johnson are well qualified to uphold the honor of the bay cities in the national tournament.

SAUSALITO PROGRAM.

Marin county swimmers will assemble in Sausalito to compete in the annual Fourth of July swimming meet tomorrow. The meet will have a large entry list from the secondary schools in the county and the various vacation resorts.

The program includes the 50, 100, 220, 440, 880 yards and relay. The Metropolitan are conceded the honors of the meet by virtue of the prowess of Geo. Kelly, Art Kogele and Jack Sears.

Special events have been added so that the mermaids may have a chance to share in the spoils. A ladies' 50 and 100 yard dash and diving are the events for the women. The events for the men are the 50, 100, 220, 440, 880 yards and relay. The Metropolitan are conceded the honors of the meet by virtue of the prowess of Geo. Kelly, Art Kogele and Jack Sears.

The Native Sons festival at San Jose will be concluded by a swimming meet at Alamo Heights. The Alamo Heights club of San Jose will meet the Neptune club of Santa Cruz. Roy Mosher, of the local organization is expected to win the longer races. The short distances will bring out some lively competition when Harry Davenport, the sprint champion of the national city meets George Taylor of Santa Cruz.

Surf Beach park, at Alameda, will be the scene of a big swimming competition on both the 4th and the 5th. The high diving competition will be the feature of the two days. Harry Kerns, Milton Donnelly, J. Paulson, A. Mike and Art Runkler will be the chief men in the plunging. The Y. M. C. A. of Berkeley and Oakland will engage in the aquatic meet. The Alameda Athletic institution and George Lindsay of Berkeley are expected to furnish some high class races. George Starrett of Oakland will also be in the running.

Berkeley high school will have some of its stars in the races. Brown, Simpson, Clarkson and Down have entered in the events.

S'sh! Don't Disturb Him Now!

OESCHGER IS PRAISED BY EASTERN MEN

Eastern scribes are enthusiastic in their praises of two players well known in Oakland, and especially identified with St. Mary's college. One is Joe Oeschger the young St. Mary's pitcher, and the other is Eddie Burns, coach of the local school who was directly responsible for Oeschger's signing with the Phillies. One eastern expert speaks of them as follows:

"In Joseph Oeschger, of California, the Phillies have a young pitcher with untold possibilities. While Oeschger hasn't exactly burned up the league, he has made a wonderful record for a youth just out of college and who didn't have any professional experience before getting into the fastest company."

Oeschger has the heroic build of a Mathewson, and can stand lots of work. Because of double-headers, Dolin has had to use him out of turn frequently, late, and the youth stood the test.

"It was more shoddy support than pitching weakness that caused him to be dismissed Thursday. He pitched gilded ball in the two games prior to that."

"Of course, Oeschger is not now the finished product. He has much to learn and his education will cost games, but if he is not as good as Seaton in another year, Boss Doolin and Coach Pat Moran will have missed their guess."

"In one respect, there is no maskman in the fast set who has anything on Eddie Burns, the chunky maskman of the Phillies. As a blocker, most catchers can go to school to the former International League star."

"The fellow builds a brick wall around the plate with his legs and a runner simply can't slide into the rubber. He is quick as a cat snatching a throw high or wide and putting it on the runner."

"In games last week Burns gave a good idea how strong he was in guarding the plate. On several occasions he retired runners when the chances to peg them appeared remote, and the fact that they were retired was owing to the skill in which Burns handled the throw and blocked off the runner, rather than the throw itself."

"Eddie has also developed into a timely swifter and his bat has been very useful to Boss Doolin in rallies."

Not Enthusiastic Over Golf

LONDON, July 3.—On the heels of the recent golf championships there broke out a fierce letter to the press battle, which still rages, on the merits of the game. In the provocative article "Anti Golf" signed himself to a general denunciation of the game both for boys and for elders, but particularly branded it as altogether unfit for schoolboys. Under no circumstances should they be allowed to play it, he contended. It was a pastime, not a game, and lacked the discipline and spirit of team games. He called it "the incarnation of slow rooted egotism, demanding a style of stroke which cramps and spoils the style demanded for real games." He concluded: "Lawn Tennis is bad enough, but golf is entirely—there is no other word for it—damnable."

If Hogan continues to have any kind of luck, it is difficult to see what club figures to stop the Tigers. A few accidents would play havoc with the Tigers, and there are quite a few players on the Venice team who are easily susceptible to injury, amongst them Kane, Borton, Bliss and Huser. "Speed" McDonnell and Franz Hops are two corking utility men, while Melton is a dandy valinger, who can be shored into a vacancy in the outfield without any loss of strength.

The work of Kieffer, Hitt and "Doc" White is only desperate for the present position occupied by Venice—that is if we except the wonderful aggressive work done by Captain Dick Bayless. The three runners in the outfield are easily susceptible to injury, amongst them Kane, Borton, Bliss and Huser. ## R. R. MAN KILLS SELF IN OFFICE

Missouri Pacific's Associate Secretary Found Dead by Watchman.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Guy Phillips, associate secretary of the Missouri Pacific Railway Company, shot and killed himself in the office of the company on the eighth floor of a big Broadway office building late last night. His physician said he had been a sufferer recently from despondency.

Phillips, who was an officer or director of numerous corporations besides the Missouri Pacific, was seen early last evening alive and apparently at work at his desk in the record room of the road's offices. An hour later the watchman, who had noted Phillips' presence, saw that the door of the room was still open, but that Phillips was lying across the desk. Investigation showed the railroadman dead from a bullet wound in the temple. A revolver was lying under the chair.

On a table lay a note which asked that his wife be notified. It also requested that notification be given A. H. Calaf, secretary and treasurer of the Missouri Pacific at Seabright, N. J., and Dr. Henry Moffatt, Mr. Phillips' physician in New York.

Phillips was slightly over 60 years old and had been for more than a quarter of a century associated with the Missouri Pacific. He was assistant secretary of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railway Company, secretary of the Iron Mountain car trust, secretary-treasurer and a director of the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Railroad Company, assistant secretary and assistant treasurer and a director of the Virginia Railway and Car Company, and a director of the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Company and the Three States Realty Company.

UNSETTLED POLITICS CAUSE FRENCH LOSSES

PARIS, July 3.—French investors lost $54,000,000 francs ($111,200,000) during the last six months, according to the calculations of the economist, Edmond Thuhy, based on an examination of the quotations on the principal French investments in the last five years. The holders of French rentes have lost 4,000,000,000 francs by their depreciation, according to the same authority, who calls this a national calamity, which is to be attributed to spendthrift budgets and the succession of ministries.

ITCHING BURNING SALT RHEUM

Started With Pimples. Would Break and Spread. Covered Limb From Hip to Ankle. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Entirely Well Without a Scar.

Oxford, Mont.—"My salt rheum started with little white pimples. When I scratched they would burn and itch and later on they would fill me, break and spread and get red all around. It came on my thigh. When the pimples broke just enough fluid ran out to form scales. It seemed to enlarge the sore and the itching like saw-tooth when my clothing rubbed over them. I used a treatment for quite a while but I got no relief. In fact I got worse. I was getting so that it troubled me very much, as it got so I hated to move my limb for fear to crack open the sores which covered my left limb from my hip to my ankle. The sores were from the size of a pea to the size of a silver dollar.

"I turned to the advertisements in the papers and Cuticura Soap and Ointment took my eye. So I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. The first treatment gave me ease and from then on with every treatment I could see a change. From the time I started with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment I was entirely well without a scar." (Signed) F. L. Layton, Apr. 20, 1914.

LIVING STATUE ON CITY HALL WILL CHOOSE STONE IMAGES

MISS SALISBURY donned a Persian costume for her altitudinous stunt.

WHERE MISS JANE SALISBURY POSED

MISS JANE SALISBURY posing high above Oakland. She is the first "statue" to occupy the lofty niche in the city hall.

Who wouldn't be a little bride on a wedding cake?

Jane Salisbury thought she'd like to see how she'd look in such a predicament—but not until she came to Oakland could she make the experiment. Wedding cakes big enough to support a full-sized bride are scarce—but the City Hall did it.

"Here we are!" shouted Miss Salisbury, when she saw the ornamental granite pile. "If this isn't an overgrown wedding cake I don't know what is!"

She climbed from where the elevator stopped, running to the very top and there, in one of the niches, she stood, to look like a bride on a wedding cake would look. Harry S. Anderson, commissioner of public works, stood alongside and watched the effect.

"If anyone else had called that hall an overgrown wedding cake I'd have been ashamed," she laughed. "But with Miss Salisbury it's different. Furthermore, it's given me an idea. We'll get statues for these niches—even if they do look like the sugar figures on a bride's cake. Why not? The effect is great."

A CITY'S ART ADVISER.

"Let me choose the statues," pleaded Miss Salisbury.

It was agreed and Miss Salisbury will ask Oakland people to forward suggestions to her so that she may be the better judge.

She will be in Oakland until the end of the "Omar the Tentmaker" engagement at the Macdonough, where she is leading lady, and will receive suggestions there. Then she'll go East, and finally will write Anderson her choice after seeing other "overgrown wedding cakes."

If there are such in the future east.

"I guess I won't and any though," she thinks. "They seem distinctly Californian—and very pretty."

She and Richard Walton Tully, author of the play and a former Oakland man, will collaborate in the choice of statues for the building.

TAKEN SOUTH AS SUSPECT; RELEASED

Albert E. Williams, 235 Oak street, a trick bicycle rider, who was arrested here at the request of the Los Angeles police and taken to the southern city, has been released and returned to Oakland, as he was not the man wanted. It was alleged that Williams had cashed a bogus check in Los Angeles, but he was able to furnish a satisfactory alibi without difficulty. The police are still seeking the check passer.

THEN and NOW

Seventy-five years ago today the first state normal school in the United States was opened in Lexington, Mass. The parlor of a boarding-house was the cradle of this educational system. In those days it was thought that a school "to teach teachers how to teach" was a needless expenditure of time and money. Unable to secure state aid, the pioneers accepted money offered by Edmund Dwight, who later became conspicuously identified with the new educational movement. The first class, consisting of five girls, had the Rev. Cyrus Pearce of Nantucket as its teacher. At the end of the first year the school, known as the Lexington Academy, had twenty-five students—all girls. It had demonstrated its worth so thoroughly that the legislature voted by a large majority to appropriate sufficient funds to establish it as a permanent adjunct to the educational system.

Today the normal school is an indispensable part of the public school system throughout the United States. It exerts a commanding influence over the 522,000 school teachers who are instructing 18,000,000 school children. The old-time pedagogues, who were considered efficient if he or she had mastered the three R's, is giving way to the highly trained normal school graduate who has spent two or more years in diligent study to prepare for the profession. There are more than 300 public and private normal schools in the United States today. The number of prospective teachers enrolled as students aggregates nearly 100,000, of which three-fourths are women. The graduates from the higher teachers' institutions are masters of curricula equal to those of the most advanced universities; several of these institutions grant pedagogical degrees. The normal school exists today in practically every civilized country.
